Ghirardelli – A Leading Chocolate Brand in the U.S.A.

PACKAGING is so much more than just protecting a product. It's an essential Marketing Tool, which supports branding, emphasizes the product's best features and creates an unforgettable experience for the customer. It's a gateway that can elevate your product – and company – to the next level. When you want to raise your products' sales and gain an edge over the competition, compelling packaging is crucial. Attractive packaging can add significant value to your product by inspiring more sales, improving brand awareness and boosting customer retention.

TAKE GHIRARDELLI AS AN EXAMPLE - while similar in style to ordinary round cans, the brand uses oval decorative tins that offer a standout visible area for visual marketing and are particularly suited to premium products, lending elegance to the final packaging design for cosmetics and other luxury goods.

ADVANTAGES to using metal for luxury packaging - from functionality to visual impact, metal can help brands win the battle on the store shelf, especially by our years of experiences in metal printing

HIGHLY SPECIALIZED visual decorative tins were made for the demanding market that is chocolates. Whether it's on display or coming out of a gift set, confectionery packaging always need to be at its best.

Dewey's Bakery / Salem's Bakery – One of the most traditional cookie brand in the U.S.A.

WHILE MANY COMPANIES focus on creating the best products possible, they often overlook a central element of getting their items into a buyer's hands — persuasive packaging. When you have an eye-catching package that reflects your brand, you'll stand out on retail shelves and attract more buyers.

FROM WHOLESALE cookie tins to whiskey packaging, square decorative tins with vibrant color built into a series would bring a touch of style and sophistication to the product and its brand aesthetics

AS A LEADER in creative packaging design, we understand that when a package convinces a consumer to reach out and grab it off the shelf, half the battle is already won.

WHEN square decorative tins are combined with our decorative options, such as quality printing, holographic finishes, meshing or embossing and debossing, products will stand out on store shelves in packaging that engages consumers and communicates a message of quality.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTION of successful packaging is its ability to raise your company's brand recognition. The top brands on the market set themselves apart by being memorable. Without even seeing a company's name on a product, a customer will recognize an iconic brand by elements such as branded color schemes, logos or designs. Customers are more likely to buy products from companies they trust rather than from unknown sellers, making packaging designed to raise brand recognition crucial to a business' success.

Think Out of the “Box”

OM SHE AROMATHERAPY is a rising brand in Australia for skincare & cosmetic products.

WHILE OTHERS THINK this is a round paint pot style tin with an ordinary lever lid, has nothing to do with beauty products, it is designed the festive collection of SHE.

THE TIN'S outer surface is decorated with eye-catching graphics and its inside is thoughtfully coated with food-grade lacquer. As it is a big enough container, its after use is definitely ideal for storage especially good for food safety.

Festival Packaging

FESTIVAL TIN BOXES are often use to increase the feeling of indulgence in cookies, chocolates, biscuits and other sweets especially during the holiday seasons.

OUR EXPERTISE is not only in development and production, but also in strategic planning with our clients for all year round.

IF YOU ARE BORED of square, round or rectangular shape packaging, our heart shape decorative series would definitely stand out on store shelves and add sophistication to the products they carry.

WITH A BROAD RANGE of sizes and lid profiles, our heart shape series can suit almost any occasion. For even more creative packaging, try combining tins with relief varnishes that create a reflective 3-D effect and can be applied over the entire surface of a package, creating high-impact shimmer.

ALTERNATIVELY, consider a tactile finish, such as a soft touch over varnish, which provides a highly aesthetic and sensual effect, encouraging consumers' interests to touch and examine products.
